

Anuwadak

Anuwadak is an initiative to translate literary works in Nepali to vice versa. It allows to translate novels, stories, poems and many other bank of knowledge into our native language through mass contribution of contributors.

It also aims to flourish our ancient art and literature through globalization. We have many master pieces of literary which are not being recognized by world due to problem in language.

So, this application tries to bridge between languages and promote literary work though collaborative intelligence.